

Sumner Sundowner

See Lisa McCune in Dead Man's Cell Phone and join the cast for free post-show entertainment.

— An afternoon of theatre, followed by groovy beats, a free caffeine fix — and wine with the actors - what more could you ask of a lazy Sunday get-together with your friends?

The Show:

Dead Man's Cell Phone featuring Lisa McCune is an imaginative offbeat fantasy about one woman's accidental quest to make people feel a bit better about themselves.

Post Show Event - Sumner Sundowner:

Following the show, the cast will take to the Crumpler Bean Bag Stage for an informal Q&A. To warm up the discussion Wolf Blass Wines will be offering samples of their latest wines, a house DJ will be playing some beats, Genovese will be serving free coffee and Script Bar & Bistro will be offering a Super Sunday dinner special.
